2 BOSTON BANKERS HELD IN $75,000 NOTE FORGERY

SUICIDE SHOCK KILLS A WOMAN

MILWAUKEE Wis., Oct. 18.—A special dispatch from Mineral Point says that E. Hapacum, cashier of the First National Bank of that place, shot and killed himself. His body was taken to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John E. Gos-

Mrs. Lillian Smith of No. 53 Hubbard avenue, North Cambridge, reported to the Cambridge police to-day that she found the above note pinned to the tablecloth in her dining room. The furniture was turned upside down. Pictures were turned toward the wall, and everything in the house was upset. The police are investifor release from matrimonial bonds in the Suffolk County Divorce Court to-day. Mrs. Minnie Corbett accused her husband, Winfield G. Corbett, of habitual intoxication and said that once he choked her so she feared she would be killed. A guest of the hotel in North Attleboro kept by her husband interfered and saved her, she testified. Her brother, Joseph Simpson, testified he had seen Corbett drink thirteen BRIDGEPORT. Oct. 18.—Mrs. Mary Samson, forty years old, and her daughter Emma, 16, were taken to a rooming house at 100 West 130th St., New York City, where they were found by police. The mother was dying, and the daughter, who is seriously ill from eating tainted mushrooms, was taken to a hospital. The father, who mistreated them for mushrooms, was arrested.

YOUR DUTY IS PLAIN—No. 2

By HERBERT KAUFMAN

YOU men who employ boys in your offices and stores and shops want THINKERS, not SHIRKERS—WORKERS, not SHIRKERS. You'd rather keep men who keep pace with your growth, who rise from the rudiments to be directing heads. Such men are worth most to you. Their scars of experience, once acquired, do not have to be duplicated in a string of successors, each of whom must make SIMILAR blunders and mistakes at your expense. But atrophied, anemic frames do not generate staying power.

Stunted, undeveloped minds are not capable of initiative. The man whose moral fiber has not been wrought and shaped is not to be trusted with the fullest responsibility—morality is not an instinct, but a product of environment.

Only the boy who possesses strength within himself can lend strength to your organization. While he is giving you his YOUTH, give him the opportunity to give you a broader, a more useful and a more profitable MANHOOD.

The Y. M. C. A. is adding the temper of character to thousands of young men who need its gymnasium for their bodies, its night EDUCATIONAL CLASSES for their brains, and its ethical influence for their CHARACTER UPLIFT.

The more men it can help, the better it can help the commerce of the city. But its growth has been so rapid that its present resources are now too small. It needs money to carry on its work. Help YOURSELF by helping the Y. M. C. A. to help some of YOUR boys.

This is the second article in the Y. M. C. A. series by Mr. Kaufman. The first article, "You Can Do Nothing With a Boy," will be published in the AMERICAN tomorrow. The first article was published in the SUNDAY AMERICAN yesterday. Copies of the SUNDAY AMERICAN will be obtained at the AMERICAN office.

Keep Your Head About You, Girls

By BEATRICE FAIRBAX

I WONDER if my girls ever need their heads in their hands. If they do, I want to tell them that their heads are in their hands.

In most of the poor but beautiful legends, the girls are in their hands.

Of course, the rich man's girls are in their hands.

In real life, if they are in their hands, they are in their hands.

Rick, fashionable men marry in their hands.

Take your employer for instance: he may be rich, he may be fashionable; he may be both, but he is not in their hands.

If he calls truly in love with you, he will call you in your own house as any reasonable man would.

Beware of Such Men

But the chances are that if he invites you to go to the theatre, or the dance, or to the city, he is not in their hands.

This advice does not, of course, apply to the men who are in their hands.

A girl will pay every attention to the girl who is poor and pretty and unknown, but when it comes to marriage he chooses

The Heather-Bed

By WILFRED W. GIBSON

IN my wide and wistful room, I sit and think of the Heather-Bed.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

THE CONSERVATORY GIRL

By J. C. ROTH

THE CONSERVATORY GIRL—You see, I have been thinking of you for some time.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

And she looks so important; yes, she looks so important; yes, she looks so important.

INVESTIGATE BOY'S DEATH BY AUTO

LYNN, Oct. 18.—Investigation is being made today by the police of the death of the Paul Nyquist, six years old, of 47 Irving road, who was killed by being run over by an automobile driven by F. R. Sarnbom of Lynn, across the subway line. The boy, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nyquist of 151 State road, was on the way to school on Lynn street with his little sister when he was caught between the wheels of the auto. He became frightened and ran under the machine.
